I value simplicity. By day I work in Finance, but I don't hold that against me since I am personable and occasionally fun with a sense of humor not typical for an Accountant. Although I like what I do, I am not consumed or defined by my job. I am exhilarated with life is natural highs? Skiing fresh powder, riding my BMW through Mountain Parks, laughing with friends. There is nothing more amazing than cross-country skiing under a full moon. Nature is where I connect to my spiritual self. I am learning the art of medication, finding the peace and relaxation a welcome addition to my life. I am seeking a woman who has a gentle nature and deep self-assurance c a woman who knows and loves herself
